DESIGN HOME
San Antonio, Bexar County, Texas.

Owner: L.J. Hart, Travis Bldg., San Antonio, Texas.

Date of Erection: Prior to 1880

Architect: Unknown

Builder: Nat Lewis

Present Condition: Good

Number of Stories: Two

Materials of Construction: Native limestone, pine, cypress and walnut

Other Existing Records: None

Additional Data:

The house is two story, containing ten rooms and two stair halls. The construction is of native limestone, the exterior of which is unfinished. Wood work is of pine, oak, walnut and cypress. All mill work is of Florida pine, milled in the East. This millwork was shipped to the old town of Indianola which, at the time, was practically the main port of entry to Texas for the shipping trade.

Nat Lewis, the builder was a native of Boston, Mass., and upon moving to Texas built this house, as an almost exact replica of his old home in Boston.

Much of this information contained herein is credited to Mr. August Herff, Architect of San Antonio.
